

I fell into colors absent from you
I kept on trying
I couldn't keep the lying

I swear they kept on tying
Upon hands and feet
Then I saw the weakness dying
I saw the grip release

Come in my head
I can see it sometimes
And I could see it sometimes
And I could see it sometimes
And I could see it sometimes

Inside I felt
Distant from myself
Farther send my mind free
And I'll watch your colors change me
Your colors change me
Your colors change me
Your colors change me
Your colors change me

Come in my head
I could see it sometimes
And I could see it sometimes
And I could see it sometimes
And I could see it sometimes

Turn away
I couldn't stand the pain
I've watched it all
I've watched it all change
Turn away
I couldn't stand the pain
I've watched it all
I've watched it all change
