

Saviour

Halford

Im set to paralyze
Im older so Im wise
I have been crucified
With words personified

Here I am now, Im your Saviour
There can be only one
Im the master, past and future
Now the end has begun

Ive always stood alone
Your time got overgrown
Those words shot away to wide
No hate can take my pride

Here I am now, Im your Saviour
There can be only one
Im the master, past and future
Now the end has begun
