I can't see, everything is twisted
Red lights are shining in the distance
Cascade, still lit through my windows
Soaking me in lurid colors

And my heart is twisting in attention
My lungs find a new addiction
We race through car chase strings and
My soul is raging so I

Chase it, chase and follow it to right door
My mind is [Incomprehensible]
Listen, listen to this educating noise
And you won't go down

Chase it, chase and find out I'm lookin' for
This life is takin' on much more
Listen, listen to this educating noise
And you won't go down

Tonight, I find a new existence
Far low in the city's footprints
New lit, what a shame of visions
We know we could see the faces

My frown seemed so inconsistent
And I feel so much of resistance
So good and so convenient
My soul is raging so I

Chase it, chase and follow it to right door
My mind is [Incomprehensible]
Listen, listen to this educating noise
And you won't go down

Chase it, chase and find out I'm lookin' for
This life is takin' on much more
Listen, listen to this educating noise
And you won't go down
And you won't go down

This life is destroying me forever
These days, they won't ever be the same

Chase it, chase and follow it to right door
My mind is [Incomprehensible]
Listen, listen to this educating noise
And you won't go down

Chase it, chase and find out I'm lookin' for
This life is takin' on much more
Listen, listen to this educating noise
And you won't go down
And you won't go down
