

alone

Halle

I don't like to be alone without you
Damn, won't you pick up your phone? You got to
I've been working on my own without you
Damn, I can't leave you alone

You must have shot me, then how could I not see
From the beginning
Right now you're not with me
When I go to bed, when I lay my head
I just want my daddy
Tell me, how did you do that?
That's usually not me

They know that I'm strong
They know that I'm lit
They know I'm that bitch
Mama made me independent
But there's something 'bout your love that's just got me, babe
Something 'bout your love

I don't like to be alone without you
Damn, won't you pick up your phone? You got to
I've been working on my own without you
Damn, I can't leave you alone

I wanted love, I wanted patience
You were a drug, I was a patient
You filled all of my prescriptions
Damn, I'm so addicted and Now we in love, that's what you call it
We get to fussin', now it's my fault
And now you're leavin'
Same shit every weekend

No, my mama ain't raise no fool, and you know that, now I'm Starting to feel way too misunderstood, and now I'm Thinking I can't put a single thing past you, yeah
Somehow I'm still wishing I had you, yeah

I don't like to be alone without you
Damn, won't you pick up your phone? You got to
I've been working on my own without you
Damn, I can't leave you alone
