

The Death Of Love

Halloween

I see your face when I awake, I see mistakes that we will make
I feel your pain when you're not strong
I hear your cries, I hear you, long for love...
When all your smiles, turn to pain
When all your world turns to rain...
When no one's there to call your name... I watch love die...
We all know everybody lies, I know that love will always die
Then the loneliness sets in, just let the crumbling begin
No way to stop the pain...
With all the promises we break
With all our greed we steal and take
With all the other loves we make... we make love die...

Oh god, who healest the broken in heart and blindest up their wounds
Look in tender pity and compassion upon thy servants
Whose joy has been turned into mourning...
Grant unto them such a vision of that life
Wherein all mysteries, shall be revealed
And all tears be wiped away...
So dwell with them, and be their god
Until the day break, and the shadows flee away forever... amen.

It seems that no one knows the rules, we all end up pleading fools
Just a broken hearted crowd, where pain it cries out loud, too many times...
And when you think that it can last, love walks into the past
It's so hard to keep it strong, when everybody does you wrong
Nobody loves forever...

When all your love binds come undone...
When all your secrets become known...
When no ones there to keep you strong...
When all your nights are spent alone...
When you can't make it on your own...
When pain and suffering become one...
We watch love die...
