Skimming

Halou

Even still, I cannot seem to calm my heart
It beats as if it means to squeeze my lungs
It’s all because of you, it's all because of you

My two hands, they shake as if I’m bound to fall
If I’ve been this weak, I swear I don’t recall
So much for my vow to take it slow
Something in me knows it's out of my control

It’s all because of you
