

It's Raining Beer

I see a thousand banners fly
See banging heads and the fists raised high
Today's the day, be strong and brave
'Cause we are standing here, one foot in the grave

Together two three four we shout out loud
And raise a toast to you the crowd
Even the gods are on our side
Let the heavens cry golden tears tonight

We're bathing in the floods
Nothing left to fear
It's raining, it's raining, it's raining beer
The world is going down and the end is coming near
It's raining, it's raining, it's raining beer

We've had enough of all the lies
Never again is our battle cry
Every drink is a sacrifice
It brings us one step closer to paradise

Satisfaction flowing from head to toe
Dancing forever, crawling on all fours
Everyone is king for a day
Another crown of foam is on its way

We're bathing in the floods
It's raining, it's raining, it's raining beer
The world is going down and the end is coming near
It's raining, it's raining, it's raining beer

No one knows what tomorrow brings
Yesterday is said and done
Come on and jump right now, right here
Headfirst deep into the liquid fun

Dap da da da
Dap da da da
Dap da da dap da da dap dap da
Dap da da da
Dap da da da
Dap da da dap da da dap dap da

We're bathing in the floods
It's raining, it's raining, it's raining beer
The world is going down and the end is coming near
It's raining, it's raining, it's raining beer

Dap da da da
Dap da da da
Dap da da da, it's raining beer

Dap da da da, it's raining beer
