

Ocean Roar

Hamilton Leithauser

Down the beach, he's lighting up a cigar
Wavin' to the LAX rental car
We're laughin' till we're cryin'
Down Wilshire Boulevard
We're singing with the animals
Life never need be so hard

Down the leaves are droppin' into the dust
Crackin' like the ice chips under my tongue
We're runnin' through the churchyard
The ghosts are in the drinks
He used to stress the audience
Now he don't care what we think

But I don't hear that ocean roar
No, I don't hear that ocean roar
No, I don't hear that ocean roar today

Down the flames are dancin' into the cake
I wish you'd cuss and fuss with us today

But I don't hear that ocean roar
No, I don't hear that ocean roar
No, I don't hear that ocean roar today
