

Freedom

HammerFall

Come inside before the darkness takes us all
Into the abyss' eternal fall
The new, the dark, the age made way more sinister
Time to wake up from your everlasting sleep

Fear divine damnation and its sacred wrath
Chart your moral course to steer your path
The blind will lead, excuse of perfect ignorance
On the gleaming wings of science, we proceed

Oh, oh, oh...

What is this, the future or repeated past?
Faith instead of reason, it will never last
Rise and be the master of your destiny
Without anyone's permission to be free

I'm free - Free to rule my life
No more - No repression
I speak - Freedom
Freedom - Freedom

Freedom, freedom call
Kings and Queens stand proud and tall
Freedom, never fall
I speak for freedom for all

I'm free - Free to rule my life
No more - No repression
I speak - Freedom
Freedom - Freedom

I'm free - Free to rule my life
No more - No repression
I speak - Freedom
Freedom - Freedom
