

No Mercy

HammerFall

I still remember when thunder struck
Out in the fields of despair
Soldier of fortune, hell's run amok
Up in true north's darkened lair

Furious fighting, honor the brave
Never give up or give in
The final showdown, souls must be saved
And the only option's to win

All guns blazing
Warrior fight or fall
Retribution
Strike first, strike hard, sound the battle call

No mercy
No mercy for you
No mercy
No mercy for you

Without a warning, the last command
Knee deep in guts, no control
Hell or high water, let's make a stand
Every scar is a medal to your soul

Times are a-changing, clock's ticking fast
I've reached the end of the line
Cursed, out of fortune, the die is cast
To the sound of the death clock's chime

Shining armor
Blood red in the rays of the sun
Rising fury
Dragon forge your steel and carry on

No mercy
No mercy for you
No mercy
No mercy for you

No mercy
No mercy for you
No mercy
No mercy for you

No mercy
No mercy for you
No mercy
No mercy for you
