

The End Justifies

HammerFall

Here we go again
Chapter 13 has been penned
To the swords, to the guns
A way of life sworn to defend

Once, misplaced in time
To be yourself can't be a crime
Judged by fame and fortune, bigotry
The fuel to feed the fire

We're the H in Heavy Metal
Solid F in Fundamental
All in all, we are HammerFall

Passion is our Lord
Courage our sword
Heavy metal in our hearts
Hard to tear apart

You came to our side
Came to join our glory ride
And with force, no remorse
We were one to set the course

The road we paved is free
Free for all, for you and me
To the sound of metal, steel meets steel
The forge of our ideals

You're the rage inside the thunder
Lightning bolts from over yonder
From the core sing with HammerFall

Passion is our Lord
Courage our sword
Heavy metal in our hearts
Hard to tear apart

Oooh, the end justifies, justifies the means
Yeah, the end justifies, justifies our means

The end
The end

The end, oh, the end justifies
The end justifies the means
The end, yeah, the end justifies
The end justifies our means

The end, oh, the end justifies
The end justifies the means
The end, yeah, the end justifies
The end justifies our means

Courage our sword
Oh, metal on our hearts
