

I've Been Thinking

Handsome Boy Modeling School

Be my boy, be my boy

Be my boy, be my boy

Be my boy, be my boy

Be my boy, be my boy

I've been thinking about those things you said

I've been thinking about those things we did

I've been thinking about those things you do

I've been thinking about those things you made me do too

I've been thinking about those things you said

I've been thinking about those things we did

I've been thinking about those things you do

I've been thinking about those things you made me do too

I was hypnotized

By your fairy eyes

Like a tiger in the dark

You were hungry from the start

Be my boy, be my boy

Be my boy, be my boy

Diamonds, candy pills

One million dollar bills

You can try

But you can't buy me, buy me

Diamonds, candy pills

One million dollar bills

You can try

But you can't buy me

You can slide slide

Slippity slide

Hip hop

And don't stop

I'll never be

On my knees

You can slide slide

Slippity slide

You can hip hop

And don't stop

'Cause I'll never be

On my knees

When I saw you on the street

I just had to look away

You were so sweet

Sexy Steve

Lay back relax

Street boy please

Wait a second it's gonna take awhile

Slide slide

Slippity slide

You can hip hop

And don't stop

I'll never be

On my knees

You can slide slide

Slippity slide

You can hip hop

And don't stop

I'll never be

On my knees

I've been thinking 'bout

Why you act so proud

I've been thinking 'bout

What's this shit about

Am I losin' control

Am I losin' my soul

Just tell me am I losin' you

Be my boy, be my boy

Be my boy, be my boy

Be my boy, be my boy

Be my boy, be my boy

Diamonds, candy pills

One million dollar bills

You can try

But you can't buy me

You can slide slide

Slippity slide

You can hip hop

And don't stop

'Cause I'll never be

On my knees

You can slide slide

Slippity slide

You can hip hop

And don't stop

'Cause I'll never be

On my knees

I've been thinking 'bout

I've been thinking about

I've been thinking 'bout

I've been thinking about

Losing you
