What You See

Handsome Devil

Paradise, Just another sunny day on 4th Street, Set my pace along the way,
walking my beat,
pawn shops and shoe stores in little Mexico, culture and contraband, no better place to go, Faces like fixtures dance around my mind,
here she comes, another angel throws a sign,

What you see is what you get,
nothing more and nothing less,
what on earth did you expect, a party,
mark my words you won't regret,
promise me you don't forget,
What you see is what you get always..(paradise)

Crossing Sycamore and I feel my day is done, (Well I've been)Searching high and low for shelter from the Sun
Lately I ain't been myself,
I can't justify my actions,
can't shake this dizzy spell,
Voices beckon me as day turns into night,
here she comes, another angel throws a sign,

What you see is what you get,
nothing more and nothing less,
what on earth did you expect, a party,(yeah!)
mark my words you won't regret,
promise me you don't forget,
What you see is what you get always..

You should know, (Whoa!) You should know this life is paradise, paradise.
(like this!)

Voices beckon me as day turns into night, here she comes, another angel throws a sign, oh

What you see is what you get,
nothing more and nothing less,
what on earth did you expect, a party,(yeah!)
mark my words you won't regret,
promise me you don't forget,
What you see is what you get always..
