

Legal Tender

Handsome Furs

Don't want to hear about the weight of the world
In a soft voice for matching girls
Don't want to hear about kings and queens
All these things I bet she's never seen

It was nothing, it was nothing to me
It was nothing, it was nothing to me
It was nothing, it was nothing to me
well the ghost of light it will reflect out the sleeve
And legal tender
That's legal tender
That's legal tender
That's legal tender

He don't want what he don't need
He don't want what he don't need
He don't want what he don't need
It's a gift of places, ain't a luxury

It was nothing, it was nothing to me
It was nothing, it was nothing to me
Baby baby means nothing to me
You can kick at the world
Till it just bleeds

That's legal tender
That's legal tender
That's legal tender
My love is legal tender

And I was dead in a motel
Sunlight thrown me from the other side
I was dead in a motel
Sunlight thrown me
I was dead in a motel
Sunlight thrown me from the other side
I was dead in a motel
Sunlight thrown me, hold me