

Call Me When You're Pulling Up

Handsome Ghost

Will you still be kind
Will you turn your back on me
I fear it's nearly morning
And I can't drink myself to sleep

I'm stumbling down the bedroom stairs
And I cannot begin to care
A stranger there is sleeping on my couch
But I'll find a better way
I can disappear for days
Unless you would agree to help me out

Come pick me up
Drive me around
I want to feel something again
So tell me you'll be here now
Yes it has be done
We can stare at the same old stars
I want to feel something again
So go on and break my heart

Darling do your worst
Like only you know best
Call me when you're pulling up
Yeah I know the consequence

I'm just so tired of giving in
Of turning round the signs again
The life you saved was never meant to last
No I don't want to get some sleep
But I know why you had to leave
And this will be the final time I ask

Come pick me up
Drive me around
I want to feel something again
So tell me you'll be here now
Yes it has be done
We can stare at the same old stars
I want to feel something again
So go on and break my heart
