Funeral

Handsome Ghost

One more time to pay my respects
Cross my heart and taking a breath
Those long nights remember the lake
Cold as ice the look on your face

In the open water, morning sun
And the sons and daughters, still to come

So it ends oh but it was beautiful
Laid to rest slow call it a funeral
Everything, everything stops
Everything, everything stops

Those two years and all that we learned
Those still scenes they play in reverse
Daylight crept the cool of the touch
The great northwest it rained for a month

In the open water, morning sun
And the sons and daughters, still to come

So it ends oh but it was beautiful
Laid to rest slow call it a funeral
Everything, everything stops
Everything, everything stops

So it ends oh but it was beautiful
Laid to rest slow call it a funeral
Everything, everything stops
Everything, everything stops

Over now oh but something still remains
Thunder clouds roll and then the lightning came
Everything, everything stops
Everything, everything stops
