Like A Wind In The Sky

Oh god Give me the power To fight with doubt That rounds my mind

Tell me what should I do To understand The suffering of the spirit In this imperfect body

Show me the way I must follow To reach the sky And save my soul

When I close my eyes When the silence prevail I may see the light And send my sorrow away

My soul can fly Like a wind in the sky Hangar