

Reality Is a Prison

Hangar

I still feel this cruel wanting
Yet I'm sure I don't wanna die

You try to hide your deepest sins
There is no reason
Shadows of you still haunting me
I belong here

Yes, reality is a prison
Reality is a prison
Reality is a prison
Reality...

I have no time on my hands
I keep pushing on
When the moment comes
I'm just a stranger alone

Yes, reality is a prison
Reality...

Have you ever talked to someone
And it makes you wanna cry?
When it's time to forget
Everything the makes you want to die

You try to hide your deepest sins
There is no reason
Shadows of you still haunting me
I belong here!

My eyes they see, but I can't believe
My heart is screaming out loud
I'll make an offer you can't refuse
Some things are not what they seem

I have no time on my hands
I keep pushing on
When the moment comes
I'm just a stranger

Reality is a prison
Reality...
