

I'm Proud To Destroy Myself

Hangman's Chair

Hot whiskey, ice cocaine
I'm sorry for what I've said
I say I'm sorry for what I've said
I'm drunk again, again and again
Don't worry baby, you only know me when I'm loaded

May I be damned
May I be damned for what I take, for when I pray
And I don't care
For what I write, for what I praise
I don't give a fucking damn

I'm high again, again and again
No, don't worry baby, you only know me when I'm loaded

May I be damned
May I be damned for what I thought for a moment when I was down
For I am proud to destroy myself
I don't give a damn

May I be damned
