

I remain alone

I'm lying naked on the floor
And eating dust of death more and more
I'm hearing voices behind the door
I see you moving like a dirty whore

The stars are shining like your eyes
With a glowing scarlet light
The devils built me a throne
I will never come back home

Leaving on a midnight lullaby
Like a sharp knife
Cutting a butterfly
Smiling, beneath the moonlight

I'm breathing the ashes of this world
This curse is for the day you were born
Collapsing through the corridor
Wake with a kiss from my favorite whore

The stars are shining like your eyes
With a glowing scarlet light
The devils built me a throne
I will never come back home

Never coming home

Under this light I'm freaking out
Losing control of body and soul
The world is ending in a blackout

Under this light I'm creeping out
Climbing the graves
And ripping my soul
Your star is dying with my phantom

I've seen the fall of your scarlet star
And the tears from your eyes

I've heard the fall of your scarlet star
And a scream from the darkest sky
I keep every tear you cry
And your pain in a jar
Enjoy the silence we are done
Enjoy the silence we are done
I've heard the fall...
