

The Man Who Throws the Tetris Piece

Hank Green

There've been a lot of bad guys
In a lot of good video games
Bowser, and your opponent in Pong,
The Pacman ghosts, and Donkey Kong

But one bad guy, he stands alone,
He will never tire,
He sits there on his blocky throne,
He'll be there till you die

Your fingers may move with blinding speed,
There may be no game you can't beat,
But can't you see that no one can defeat,
The man who throws the Tetris piece!

Higher, Higher, No straight piece!
I need a @#&$%*$#@# straight piece!

No, never has there been a villain like the man who throws the Tetris piece!
