

Oh How I Miss You (Since You Went Away)

Hank Locklin

Oh how I miss you since you went away oh how I need you more every day
I'll be so happy when you're back to stay oh how I miss you since you went away
I lost my sunshine the day you went away all of my blue skies have turned into gray
I'm so brokenhearted that's all I can say oh how I miss you since you went away
(Oh how I miss you since you went away)
I miss your blue eyes your sweet smiling face
No one on earth dear could ever take your place
Don't think I'm fooling when these words I say
Oh how I miss you since you went away
