Gentle On My Mind

Hank Snow

It's knowing that your door is always open and your path is fre e to walk That makes me tend to leave my sleepin' bag rolled up and stash ed behind your couch And it's knowin' I'm not shacked by forgotten words and bons And the ink stains that have dried upon some line That keeps you in the back roads by the rivers of my mem'ry That keeps you ever gentle on my mind It's not clinging to the rocks and I'd be planted on their colu mns now that binds me Or somethin' that somebody said because they thought we fit tog ether walking It's just knowin' that the world will not be cursin' or forgivi n' When I walk along some railroad track and find That you're moving on the back roads by the rivers of my mem'ry And for hours you're just gentle on my mind Though the wheet fields and the clothes lines And the junk yards and the highways come between us And some other woman's cryin' to her mother cause she turned an d I was gone I still run in silence tears of joy might stain my face And summer sun might burn me till I'm blind But not to where I cannot see you walkin' on the back roads By the rivers flowing gentle on my mind I dipped my cup of soap back from a gurgling crackling caltron in some train yard My beard a roughen coal pile and a dirty hat pulled low across my face Through cupped hands round a tin can I pretend I hold you to my breast and find That you're waving from the back roads by the rivers of my mem' ry Ever smiling ever gentle on my mind That you're waving from the back roads by the rivers of my mem' ry Ever smiling ever gentle on my mind
