Ghosted

Hannah Ellis

From that very first touch
Baby we were coming in hot
No we couldn't stop
For a while, boy ya had me
Believing that we were the best
Now there's nothing left

Cause your lips went from kissing me to not talking no more
And your hands went from touching me to not texting no more
Ain't it a shame that it ain't what I thought that it was
That it was

Now I know I never knew you
Now I'm finally seeing through you
Now I know who I'm not gonna call
When I want someone to hold me
You had a side that I never saw
But boy you really showed it
When you ghosted
The way you ghosted

Feeling something real must've scared ya
Well my bad for thinking you meant
Every thing that you said

Well you and your disguise ain't gettin' my time anymore
Cause I went from crying to not caring anymore
Ain't it a shame that it ain't what I thought that it was
That it was

Now I know I never knew you
Now I'm finally seeing through you
Now I know who I'm not gonna call
When I want someone to hold me
You had a side that I never saw
But boy you really showed it
When you ghosted
The way you ghosted

Ain't hangin' round just to be strung along
When you reappear I'll be gone

Now I know I never knew you
Now I'm finally seeing through you
Now I know who I'm not gonna call
When I want someone to hold me
You had a side that I never saw
But boy you really showed it
When you ghosted
The way you ghosted

I'm seeing through you
I'm seeing through you
The way you ghosted
