

(So what?)

(So what?)

I didn't mean to say it out loud
But staring at your face made it fall right out
Maybe it's the baby blue in your eyes
Or the sexy casual in your style
Don't gotta get weird about it, scream and shout it
Don't make a thing about it

I love you, so what, what? What's the big deal?
Just 'cause I got all the feels
No it doesn't mean you got to put a ring on it
Post it and flaunt it, just 'cause you caught it
Don't go jumping the gun, text your friends that I'm the one
Even though I know what we got is real
Baby we can still keep it chill
I love you, so what?
(I love you, so what?)
I love you, so what?
(I love you, so what?)

It don't got to be a long drawn out conversation
Overthink every little thing I'm saying
Just because I'm telling you where I'm at
Doesn't mean you got to go and say it back
Let's just kiss about it, dance around it
Not make a thing about it

I love you, so what, what? What's the big deal?
Just 'cause I got all the feels
No it doesn't mean you got to put a ring on it
Post it and flaunt it, just 'cause you caught it
Don't go jumping the gun, text your friends that I'm the one
Even though I know what we got is real
Baby we can still keep it chill
I love you, so what?
(I love you, so what?)
Oh, I love you, so what?
(I love you, so what?)

So don't get weird about it, just 'cause I'm crazy 'bout ya
Don't want to leave without ya, glad I found ya, no way around it

I love you, so what, what? What's the big deal?
Just 'cause I got all the feels
No it doesn't mean you got to put a ring on it
Well maybe I want it, just 'cause you caught it
Don't go jumping the gun, text your friends that I'm the one
Even though I know what we got is real
Baby we can still keep it chill
I love you, so what?
(I love you, so what?)
I love you, so what?
(I love you, so what?)
I love you, so what?
So what? So what?

I love you, so what?
