

Plans

Hannah Ellis

Don't know what the cost is
But dreams don't come for free
This one-bedroom apartment
Too small for you and me
But baby we got everything we need
And just right under 700 square feet
Ain't quite where we thought we'd be by now

But we got plans
Of a house in a city on a shoreline
And we got plans
To spend too much money on the cheap wine
From the church and the dress to the little bare feet
No, we ain't there yet but we're gonna be
Living in the moment
Loving where we're going
Long as I know that
We got plans
Yeah, we got plans

Turns out they're always changing
And baby, that's alright
'Cause the new ones that we're making
Just get better with time
As long as I know you're gonna be Forever here waking up next to me
Right where we belong
On the way to get it all

We got plans
Of a house in a city on a shoreline
And we got plans
To spend too much money on the cheap wine
From the church and the dress to the little bare feet
No, we ain't there yet but we're gonna be
Living in the moment
Loving where we're going
Long as I know that
We got plans
We got plans, yeah

Might take a little longer than we expected
From here, where we are, to wherever we're heading
I'm up for seeing it through
As long as I'm going with you

'Cause we got plans
Of a house in a city on a shoreline
And we got plans
To spend too much money on the cheap wine
From the church and the dress to the little bare feet
We ain't there yet but we're gonna be
Living in the moment
Long as I know that
We got plans
Yeah, we got plans, oh-oh, oh-oh

We know where we're going
Know where we're going
Feels good, don't it?
To know where we're going
Know where we're going
Know where we're going
'Cause we got plans
