

Like starry skies and fireflies will always be summer
Like amen and church, can't have one without the other
Like dive bars and smoke
Yeah, everybody knows
Like long nights and sunrise will always mean memories
New Years and Champagne will mean one too many Like dirt roads and dust

You and me will always be us
Like comin' home headlights always means your truck
Like leanin' in's always gonna mean
My red wine lips mixed with your whiskey kiss Friday nights
Like your right hand's always gonna be in mine
Some things just fit perfectly
Like an old t-shirt and Levi jeans
You and me will always be us

Like two kids and diamond rings will always mean crazy
Like stupid fights and I know I'm right means, I'm sorry baby
Like young love grows up

You and me will always be us
Like comin' home headlights always means your truck
Like leanin' in's always gonna mean
My red wine lips mixed with your whiskey kiss Friday nights
Like your right hand's always gonna be in mine
Some things just fit perfectly
Like an old t-shirt and Levi jeans
You and me will always be us

Some things don't hold up
They fade and they rust
But this ain't that baby

You and me will always be us
Like comin' home headlights always means your truck
Like leanin' in's always gonna mean
My red wine lips mixed with your whiskey kiss Friday nights
Like your right hand's always gonna be in mine
Some things just fit perfectly
Like an old t-shirt and Levi jeans
You and me will always be us
