

Feels Like Home

Hannah Grace

One step, take a breath
'Cause you never know what's coming next
But you better believe it
You're gonna feel it
You won't know what's happenin'
Not until the raindrops hit your skin
And you soak it all in Yeah, you soak it all in

Ooh, throw my arms open wide and my heart to the sky and
Ooh, and it's hard to believe that you're mine

Feels like home, coming back to you
A home I never even knew I had
So familiar but brand new
Feel so good, oh babe, I've got it bad, oh-ooh
Nothing like the unknown to make you feel like, ooh, home

Now you're all I talk about
Every chance I get I say your name out loud
Is it real yet?
Am I living the dream yet?
Days blend into nights
As the sun sets, the moon lights up the world we're both in Oh, let's soak it all in

Ooh, throw my arms open wide and my heart to the sky and
Ooh, and it's hard to believe that you're mine

Feels like home, coming back to you
A home I never even knew I had
So familiar but brand new
Feel so good, oh babe, I've got it bad, oh-ooh
Nothing like the unknown to make you feel like, ooh, home
Ooh, nothing like the unknown to make you feel like, ooh, home
Ooh-ooh-ah
Feels like home, coming back to you
A home I never even knew I had
So familiar but brand new
Feel so good, oh babe, I've got it bad, oh-ooh
Nothing like the unknown to make you feel like, ooh, home
Nothing like the unknown to make you feel like, ooh
Nothing like the unknown to make you feel like, ooh, home
