

Overflow

Hannah Kerr

If I speak, let it be, an echo of Your love
If I lift up my hands, let it be to feel Your touch
If I sing, let it be, more than just a melody
In my heart

Let my worship overflow
From the depths of my soul
You fill me up, and I
I can't contain it
No, I can't contain it
Oh, my heart overflows

When I walk with my feet to the rhythm of Your song
When I rise, when I fall, be the hope I'm standing on
When I feel empty and broken, remind me of Your everlasting life

Let my worship overflow
From the depths of my soul
You fill me up, and I
I can't contain it
No, I can't contain it
Oh, my heart overflows
My heart overflows

I feel it rising up
I feel it rising up
I feel it rising up
Nothing can stop this love

I feel it rising up
I feel it rising up
I feel it rising up
Nothing can stop this love

My heart overflows
From the depths of my soul
You fill me up, and I
I can't contain it
No, I can't contain it
Oh, my heart overflows
My heart overflows
My heart overflows
My heart overflows
