

False Accusations

Hans Theessink

If I had money just like Henry Ford
If I had money just like Henry Ford
Have my breakfast here
And my supper in New York
They accused me of murder, never raised my hand
I may be a poor man
But I never harmed another man
They accused me of robbery, never took a dime
There's men in this world that steal millions
And they never have to do no time False accusations, lord can't you hear me cry
Gonna get up in the morning
Take a long black train and ride
If I had money just like Henry Ford
Have my breakfast here
And my supper in New York
