

Tears Are Rolling

Hans Theessink

Tears are rolling down like showers of rain
Tears are rolling down like showers of rain
Cried so many tears but they just can't ease my pain It's a lowdown shame baby, way I treated you
It's a lowdown shame baby, way I treated you Hurt your feelings, broke your heart in two
I'm lonesome for you baby, can't wear you off my mind
I'm lonesome for you baby, can't wear you off my mind
See your face in the mirror, hear your footsteps all the time
The day you left, blues moved in with me
The day you left, blues moved in with me
Son-of-a-bitch just won't leave me be
Gonna buy me a pistol, dig a hole down in the ground
Gonna buy me a pistol, dig a hole down in the ground
If I can't have you baby, gonna lay my body down
Been crying a river but it won't bring you back to me
Been crying a river but it won't bring you back to me
Drown in the river, let my body float to the sea
