

Back In Japan

Hanson

Two and a half years since we've been to this place
Such a very long time for you to wait
Bringing you fresh music and we're to stay
We'll be eating ramen noodles every day

We're back in Japan
What they say we don't understand
We're back in Japan
What they say we don't understand

Please forgive me if I leave today
See, the custom man's been knocking on my door every single day
Knock, knock, knock, knock
You've got to go away!
You've got to go away!
Come another day!

Time to go son!
Neverrrrr!

We're back in Japan
What they say we don't understand
We're back in Japan
What they say we don't understand
