

Be My Own

Hanson

Do you want, to be the one I know
To be the place I go, to be my own
To be my own, to be my own

Yeah I'd do it all over again
Yeah I'd chase you right down to the edge
All the mistakes, all the heartbreaks
All the bad song's, and the done wrongs
If I could do again, I wouldn't do it right, cause I might not be here tonight

And you held me close, close to your heart
Once I've sinned, I just want to be that close again

Do you want, to be the one I know
To be the place I go, to be my own
To be my own, to be my own

I don't care if know one understands
I've walked under the stars just holding your hand
All the long roads, and the sorrows, all the broken and the borrowed
When It's us against the wind, we'll be fine

Do you want, to be the one I know
To be the place I go, to be my own
To be my own, to be my own
To be my own
