

Carry You There

Hanson

Well I don't care what you say
Don't have use for words anyway
You don't need a Cadillac
'Cause I'll be waiting with my bare back
To carry you there

Try
You don't have to be afraid to just rely
On someone to hold the weight part of the time
It's alright
It can get too much to handle by yourself
If you can't do it alone I know you will say
I don't know what's at stake or what it takes

'Cause I don't care what you say
Don't have use for words anyway
You don't need a Cadillac
'Cause I'll be waiting with my bare back
To carry you there

Turn around
And you just might see the good you've left behind
But you're all caught up with words still left to find
It's never enough

So slow down
And the root of what you're feeling might appear
All the pushing up the hill has brought you here
And you're used up, but you lie
You tell me you are fine

But I don't care what you say
Don't have use for words anyway
You don't need a Cadillac
'Cause I'll be waiting
Well I'll be waiting
To carry you there

So don't be too proud
I'm holding my hand out
You've been my friend on darker days
I'll still be there
Despite your despair
I don't really care what you say

I'll carry you there
I will carry you there (10x)
