

Digging To China

Hanson

Sometimes I dream about meeting Nelson Mandela for Lunch in Hershey Pennsylvania and he's got a ninja sword
Some days I wish I could sing a song to William Shatner while he does Yoyo tricks but were in a bar on Alderaan
Some times I just want to walk out into the forest and find a Sasquatch with a bitching sculpted mustache like Wyatt Earp
Sometimes I Dream I'm friends with queen Elizabeth and she wants to play star wars and she say "Zac you're my only hope"

It's not really important that I want to do these things or who with or why
I'm dyeing in my cubical just search for the light

I'll keep digging till I get to China
It may sound ludicrous, but I'm in denial
Some times dreaming like a child's the only way to truly feel alive

Sometimes I dream I know Kevin Spacey and we hang out in Barcelona eating hallucinogenic mushroom
Some days I look through my telescope and see Albert Einstein eating tacos at a taco truck some where in Colorado and then I wake up
Some days I dream I'm talking to Johnny Depp on a cell phone in Paris about my none existent movie career
Some days I a dream I'm sheriff Rick Grimes on the planet Neptune playing elephant polo with a pink elephant

It's not really important that I want to do these things or who with or why
I'm dyeing in my cubical just search for the light

I'll keep digging till I get to China
It may sound ludicrous, but I'm in denial
Some times dreaming like a child's the only way to truly feel alive
