

Don't Ever Change

Hanson

You make me want to be a real contender
I feel like I could run a thousand miles
You challenge me for more than I can render
But now you're here I hope you stay for a while

You stay for a while

You show me up and prove me a pretender
You give me courage not to compromise
To your monopoly I must surrender
I need to tell you

Don't ever change
The romance, or the madness
The good days and the bad ones
And the weight off of my shoulder
You're the reason I can soldier on
Don't ever change, love
Don't ever change love

To you nobody else can hold a candle
Put in my place when I feel self-assured
But you won't give me more than I can handle
Oh, you bring me back

Don't ever change
The romance, or the madness
The good days and the bad ones
And the weight off of my shoulder
You're the reason I can soldier on
Don't ever change

You're hot and cold like a storm, then you just don't care
Make me cross my heart, and tell me to swear
You're my first day's thought and my last night's prayer

Don't ever change, love
Don't ever change love
Don't ever change, love
Don't ever change love
