

Man On Top

Hanson

Let's walk down this road now

Hey!

Na na na...

You've asked for trouble if you're messing with me
Wearing your crown, trying to make me concede
I've got my scars, but you better believe
For every one I have defeated a king

I'm strong enough, tough enough, hard enough to say it

I'm the man on top
I'm a sight to see
All dressed in black
In the third degree
I'm the man on top
I'm a hole in one
One hundred proof
A rising sun

Na na na...

You're looking down from your penthouse castle
Flaunting your dimes hoping I will unravel
I ain't no heavy but my eye's on the prize
Jump in the ring and you're in for a surprise

I'm strong enough, tough enough, hard enough to say it

I'm the man on top
I'm a sight to see
All dressed in black
In the third degree
I'm the man on top
I'm a hole in one
One hundred proof
A rising sun

Na na na...

Got my proof, it's in my hand
Right here, my fist, the rising sun

I'm the man on top
I'm a sight to see
All dressed in black
In the third degree
I'm the man on top
I'm a hole in one
One hundred proof
A rising sun
