

Panic In The Streets

Hanson

You better run for your life
We know your secrets
You're gonna dance with the devil tonight
We can't abide a past that's so shameful
You have seen your last sunrise

There will be panic in the streets, yeah
When they hear the reckoning is coming
There will be panic in the streets

You've had your chance
You've wasted your nine lives
We're gonna take what's left of your soul
Sever your ties
And crawl to your dark hole
We know just where darkness hides

There will be panic in the streets, yeah
When they hear the reckoning is coming
There will be panic in the streets

Say your last goodbyes
'Cause tonight we ride
And the white in our eyes
Will be black as night

There will be panic in the streets, yeah
There will be panic in the streets, yeah
When they hear the reckoning is coming
There will be panic in the streets
