

Sophia
Where did you come from?
Sophia
Where do you belong?

You steal my treasure
And call me vain
As I watch you daydream about fortune and fame

Sophia
Dressing to impress
Always at her best
But you're such a mess
Sophia
Always making plans
Fashionably late
'Cause all the world can wait

Changing and changing and changing her mind
I'm hoping and wishing she was mine all mine
Always at her leisure, just taking her time
There's no one else like

No one else like
No one else like

Coming and going whenever she pleases
The more she discovers the more she needs
Always at her leisure just taking her time
There's no one else like

Sophia
Will you stay for long?
Sophia
What will you become?

You steal my treasure
And call me vain
As I watch you daydream about fortune and fame

Sophia
Dressing to impress
Always at her best
But you're such a mess
Sophia
Always making plans
Fashionably late
'Cause all the world can wait

Sophia
No one else like
Sophia
No one else like
Sophia
