

Sun And Sky

Hanson

A wishing tree, I asked for you
Taking a moment from midnight
You won't remember but I do
Take me home, it's only me
Trading the shadows for sunlight
Can't control what you can't see

So just let go
Right now you're mine
We'll make nothing everything
Hold this moment
Take your time

Just you and me and you
Just you and the sun and the sky
Just you and me and you
Just you and the sun and the sky

Darkness falls, daylight fades
Let's keep this secret moment
Keep on dreaming till morning breaks

So just let go
Right now you're mine
We'll make nothing everything
Hold this moment
Take your time

Just you and me and you
Just you and the sun and the sky
Just you and me and you
Just you and the sun and the sky

The nowhere road still leads somewhere
Turn the cover, see what's there

So just let go
Right now you're mine
We'll make nothing everything
Hold this moment
Take your time

Just you and me and you
Just you and the sun and the sky
Just you and me and you
Just you and the sun and the sky
