

Take My Time

Hanson

I've never had a true obsession
But that's what you turned out to be Spent hours reeling the days you're stealing
Well they might be the death of me

So take me alive, hold my breath, my heart beat inside
If you'll let me, I'll give you all that's worth taking
Take my time
Oh... to take my time, take my time

I'll never needed conversation
To feeling empty afternoon
Your touch, it wakes me
Your love, it makes me
Every moment with you ends to soon

So take me alive, take my breath, my heart beat inside
If you'll let me, I'll give you all that's worth taking
Take me alive, hold my breath, my heart beat inside
If you'll let me, I'll give you all that's worth taking
Oh... just take my time
To take my time...
Take my time...
Won't you take my time...
