

Tragic Symphony

Hanson

I'm just a part in your masterpiece
A minuet in a minor key
Woohoo, woohoo
A sad song that you know so well
You cheat me, but you have no tell
Woohoo, woohoo

And you keep leading me on
Woohoo, woohoo
You make a good thing feel wrong
Woohoo, woohoo

Well, I know what you're doing
Girl, I see what you're doing

I'm caught up in a dark emotion
I've given you all that's left of me
You're giving me a crazy notion
I'm falling for your tragic symphony
I'm caught up in a dark emotion
I'm falling for the trap you set for me
You're giving me a crazy notion
I'm falling for your tragic symphony
Uh-uh, your tragic symphony

You played me once, but I did it twice
I guess I'm taking my own bad advice
Woohoo, uh
Well, the lie you composed is intricate
But if it don't bleed then it ain't no cut
Woohoo, woohoo

Well, I know what you're doing
Girl, I see what you're doing

I'm caught up in a dark emotion
I've given you all that's left of me
You're giving me a crazy notion
I'm falling for your tragic symphony
I'm caught up in a dark emotion
I'm falling for the trap you set for me
You're giving me a crazy notion
I'm falling for your tragic symphony
Uh-uh, uh-uh, hoo
Uh-uh, your tragic symphony

You keep leading me on
You keep leading me on

I'm caught up in a dark emotion
I've given you all that's left of me
You're giving me a crazy notion
I'm falling for your tragic symphony
I'm caught up in a dark emotion
I'm falling for the trap you set for me
You're giving me a crazy notion
I'm falling for your tragic symphony

Uh-uh, uh-uh, hoo
Uh-uh, your tragic symphony
