

Truth

Hanson

I know you feel like you've been giving me some leeway
'Cause I drive you crazy every other word that I say
But I feel like you've been pushing me away
So I'm just trying to get myself to get out of the way

'Cause we've cried a little, and we've died just a little
And some days got lost in the rain
But for a little, let's climb out of the middle
Maybe we could be reminded

That a little bit of humble goes a long way
To bring a little peace at the end of the day
So don't hold on to bitter, it'll come home to roost
And nothing can set you free like a little bit of truth
Truth
A little bit, just a little bit of truth

I bet you already know
'Cause we've walked down this road many times before
Where you got your back to the wall
And you feel ignored
'Cause I've got one foot out the door

'Cause we've cried a little, and we've died just a little
Some days got lost in the rain
But for a little, let's climb out of the middle
And maybe we can be reminded, yeah

Nothing can set you free like
Nothing can set you free like
A little bit of truth, ooh
Take me there

Been reminded that I lost myself looking out the window hoping for better days
But you're resigned and to that endless rear view, you rewind every pastime
Every pastime mistake
While we were looking ahead and behind we might miss what's still left from today
Left from today
From today

'Cause we've cried a little, and we've died just a little
Some days got lost in the rain
But, but for a little, let's climb out of the middle
Maybe we could be reminded, hey
Maybe we could be reminded

That a little bit of humble goes a long way
To bring a little peace at the end of the day
Well, don't hold on to bitter, it'll come home to roost
And nothing can set you free like
Tell again
Nothing can set you free like
(One more time)
Nothing can set you free like
A little bit of truth, oh

Just a little bit, just a little bit of truth
Ooh yeah, yeah, just a little bit, just a little bit of truth
Just a little bit, just a little bit of truth
A little bit, just a little bit of truth

Ooh
