

You're Enough

Hanson

You're enough for the rest of my life
Darling, please don't go
Blink of an eye, did I make it in time?
Hold me and tell me I'm home
I'll give you my word
The word of a fool in love
You're enough for the rest of my life
Darling, I surrender

Wide awake i sit in my bedroom alone
Think of all the things I need
Of all the thoughts you seem to cross my mind the most
One thing I could never replace

Somedays the love fades
We hold on and know its real

'Cause you're enough for the rest of my life
Darling, please don't go
Blink of an eye, did I make it in time?
Hold me and tell me I'm home
I'll give you my word
The word of a fool in love
You're enough for the rest of my life
Darling, I surrender

Wide awake I sit in my bedroom alone
I think of all the things I need
Of all the thoughts, you seem to cross my mind the most
The one thing I could never replace
Someday, if love fades
Hold on, I know it's real

'Cause you're enough for the rest of my life
Darling, please don't go
Blink of an eye, did I make it in time?
Hold me and tell me I'm home
I'll give you my word
The word of a fool in love
You're enough for the rest of my life
Darling, I surrender

For everyday another path that I could take
But I don't want just any love
I couldn't see that life with out you is a mistake
But now I know that I was wrong
Someday the love fades we hold on and know its real

'Cause you're enough for the rest of my life
Darling, please don't go
Blink of an eye, did I make it in time?
Hold me and tell me I'm home
I'll give you my word
The word of a fool in love
You're enough for the rest of my life
Darling, I surrender

Honestly, I've been waiting for you
But now I see that there's nothing to prove
On and on I've been waiting for you my love to say that you're mine

'Cause you're enough for the rest of my life
Darling, please don't go
Blink of an eye, did I make it in time?
Hold me and tell me I'm home
I'll give you my word
The word of a fool in love
You're enough for the rest of my life
Darling, I surrender.

'Cause you're enough for the rest of my life
Darling, please don't go
Blink of an eye, did I make it in time?
Hold me and tell me I'm home
I'll give you my word
The word of a fool in love
You're enough for the rest of my life
Darling, I surrender.
