

Cause

Hanumankind

Yeah

Yeah, uh

Me and my dawgs fight for a cause
Different than yours, different because
We will not stop, we will not pause
Till we on top, till we get ours
And nothing less for something more
Than all the rest, so rest assured
We pushing forward, no pulling back
No pulling punches, no more where you at
Yeah

Where you at?

For so long, we was lost on the map
Destination unknown but we still roamed
Tried to build Rome in a day 'cause we lacked the patience
Had no time to be waiting
High risk, low rewards how we swore we would make it
Young, wild, dumb summed up how we facing
Everything brung to our faces
And baby, let's face it
We all search for something till you find
Something that can make you feel alive
Make you feel like you a part of something, something real to just to remind
That what you doing here has been defined
Yeah, to give meaning to the meaningless, proof you make a difference
Answers to the questions you can't answer when you dealing with
Your issues and your pain and your flaws
But it tends to make sense when you fight for a cause
Now I ask, what is yours?

I ask, what is yours?

I ask, what is yours?

Do you fight for a cause?

Yes, I asked, what is yours?

I ask, what is yours?

I ask, what is yours?

Do you fight for a cause?

Yeah

What's the cause you believe?

What's the cause that'll cause you to wake up and see that there's more to it all?

That there's reason to breathe

That the rise and the fall of your chest through the day is the engine that pumps

Fuel to a fire that can burn down the building

Or help cook a meal for the mouths of the children

The hunger is real and the mouths in the millions

Same hands used to heal could be hands that'll kill 'em

So hand me the gun, put your hands where we see 'em

Put the bands in the bag, put the bag in the BM

High speed, hit the gas as we dash to our freedom

Pray to God we don't crash or they find where we be when

We realize, wait a minute, hit the brakes

We can't run from shit, yo, this we need to face

Need to face it all or else nothing getting solved
Fight or flight, make or break, what's your take?
Yeah, I asked, what is yours?

I ask, what is yours?
Yes, I ask, what is yours?
Do you fight for a cause?
Yes, I ask, what is yours?
I ask, what is yours?
I ask, what is yours?
Do you fight for a cause?

Keep my head above the water
Need to stay afloat
Keep my faith or I'll go under
Fear what I don't know

What's the cause you believe?
What's the cause that'll cause you to push past your limits? Go above and beyond
To forget who you were
To break all the bonds of the life that you knew for the life that you want
To dive into depths that the rest haven't gone
Yeah, to do what it takes even if they alarmed
Even if what it takes is to hurt and to harm
Or to kill if need be 'cause the path that you on
Is the one you believe, yeah, the one that will lead you
To all that you seek and to all that you need
To all that you wish for, to all that you dream
So that all of your fears in this life put to ease
When all of your tears have a reason to fall
When all of your pain has a purpose, you see
Light in a life where so much is dark
When you fight for a cause, even losses can seem alright
The only promise we have here is death
The sleep of an endless night
Beyond this, we can only guess
And your guess is as good as mine
But this is something I won't admit, yeah
This is all I believe is right
It ain't real till you truly commit
For the cause, you must fight
Now I ask, what is yours?

I ask, what is yours?
I ask, what is yours?
Do you fight for a cause?
Yes, I ask, what is yours?
I ask, what is yours?
I ask, what is yours?
Do you fight for a cause?

Keep my head above the water
Need to stay afloat
Keep my faith or I'll go under
Fear what I don't know
