

Rest In Power

Hanumankind

Check check, boy wrecks it like Ralph
Smash through walls, boy bringing down house
Demolition derby, driving with a curvy
Woman on the side, baby I do not chase clout
I'm good in this little space
Vrooom vrooom zoom zoom as I race
Up stream like trout
Cause if this shit was easy I wouldn't do it really
Got me pulling up my socks like my cleats on now
Can I kick it, yes you can
Grab yourself a ticket pay a lil extra man
I'm elevated with equestrians
On my high horse, trotting with the best of them
While my pupils slightly dilate
It feels better when I move, fuck lie and wait
But the young lion waits
For the wildebeest so he can feast and find a place
Leading the pride
But the demons inside, let my pride get the best of me
Testing me thorough
Plans up in smoke, like they hooked on Marlboro
I kicked the habit but the habit sometimes kicks back
Pain make my snap
Pleasure make her clit gasp
Everyone's in awe
When you finally be facing what you needed most of all
My knuckles bloody I punched one too many walls
And nothing came from it
Still not worth loving
If I don't love myself who gone receive it
Lifelong lies might have an honest man believe it
Have my mother grieving for the son she lost
Her boy right here but he's here at what cost
I paid the piper for the pleasure
Got my hands on a couple jewels but might've sacrificed the treasure
Hard to measure right now, only time will tell
They say time heals all, let the minutes be my medicine
Problem is that I don't settle in
Can't see myself a resident, in one place
I don't let them em in
Even when they knocking so sincerely
I know they mean well, but I they'll never really hear me
Listen to logic but the logical
Are just so fucking boring I like soaring astronomical
Heights on the daily I be sailing on the Milky Way
Milk n' cookies kept out in case someone's in the chimney
You don't know what she did to me
Heart colder than an Eskimo in up in Pluto
But they still they looking at the boy like Prince Zuko
I'll put you on the floor like Judo
Shimmy shimmy yaw, shimmy yam, shimmy yay
Give it to ya raw, I need grams, I need papes
I say fuck em all, nothing stands in the way
Expect me. Except me
Accept me
