

Wildshit

Hanumankind

Now I see all this wild shit, but they ain't ready for the Yeti
Cold ass monster
Live my life like I'm living in the mountains
I'm staying elevated I don't think you really want this You'll find it hard to breathe, find it hard to breathe
But that's what happen when the air around you clean
Too much pollution started messing with your dreams
A dirty mind cannot find what it need
Couple aces up my sleeve
Couple faces that I trust
Couple soldiers in my fleet
Couple ready bout to bust
Stack that paper cause the capital a must Then find out who your friends when you know it's time to take a cut
Why knuck if you buck, 9-5 not enough
I don't sleep, not a peep, but I'm fine, give a fuck
What you think or what you want, out of me, you out of luck
Cause I'm gone, gotta leave, on the move, gotta run
Keep in the engine running cause we gotta go
Hop inside and put the pedal to the floor
They be chasing hoes I be chasing goals
But while I'm chasing goals I be getting hoes
You waiting for the right time dawg, then the only thing you gone be left is behind my dawg
Now I ain't chasing limelight dawg, but if it's on my best believe I make it shine bright dawg

That's forreal
That's forreal
That's forreal
Till the day I'm ghost, till the day I'm killed

That's forreal
That's forreal
That's forreal
Till the day I'm ghost, till the day I'm killed

Now that's forreal
Now that's forreal
Now that's forreal tho
That's forreal
That's forreal
That's forreal

Early morning riser, late night sleeper
Bags under the eyes and got these bags under the seat bruh
Nothing but that heat, fire in my features
Nick cage, Johnny blaze, ghost riding down your street bro
That creature, I bet you not ready I come with blades and machetes like my f riends
Jason and Freddy I'll leave you out on elm street
On Friday the 13th, and that's only unlucky if you been acting ugly Ugly on the outside, beauty from within Got me standing on the outside like why would I go in meet a bunch of fake f ucks
I'm turning back
U-turn like I forgot my wallet at

The crib, show you how I live, enter my abode
Mi casa eh tu casa, ende vidu ningalude analo
And that's especially if you tryna grow
Cause I'm the type to tell you to take the leap like Geronimoooo
Do what you want baby, I'm here too
And we can get it hotter than a sauna do
For me it's always death before dishonor tho
Sticking to the code, then get the green like an iguana do

That's forreal
That's forreal
That's forreal
Till the day I'm ghost, till the day I'm killed

That's forreal
That's forreal
That's forreal
Till the day I'm ghost, till the day I'm killed

Now that's forreal
Now that's forreal
Now that's forreal tho
That's forreal
That's forreal
That's forreal
