

Fighter

Hardcore Superstar

Am I indestructible?
Will I ever fall apart?
They all said it's over and impossible
Held me down from the start

Get your act under control
Shut your mouth, silence is gold

Don't you try to tame my soul
You can never take my pride
The coward and the cynical
Will always run and hide

Get your act under control
Shut your mouth, silence is gold

So I've been told
Still I glow
I am rising from below
The hard road
Where I go
Will make my hunger grow

I've always been a fighter
Now I'm back for more
I'll fake my way to heaven
And kick down the door
You know I've always been a fighter
Rebel to the core
I'll fake my way to heaven
And kick down the door

Fears or walls or boundaries
Will never hold me back
Save your smile and mockeries
I'm a bloodhound on your track
Get your act under control
Shut your mouth, silence is gold

So I've been told
Still I glow
I am rising from below
The hard road
Where I go
Will make my hunger grow

I've always been a fighter
Now I'm back for more
(This is war)
I'll fake my way to heaven
And kick down the door
(Hear me roar)
You know I've always been a fighter
Rebel to the core
(Beg no more)
I'll fake my way to heaven
And kick down the door

(Rebel to the core)

I've always been a fighter
Now I'm back for more
(This is war)
I'll fake my way to heaven
And kick down the door
(Hear me roar)
You know I've always been a fighter
Rebel to the core
(Beg no more)
I'll fake my way to heaven
(Rebel to the core)
