Hardcore Superstar

Pain is something we feel
Hate is memories from past
Don't drown yourself in sorrows

Give me something that will last

All the countless tears
We've cried
It still feels like we're stuck
Like glue
All the countless tears
We've cried
It still feels like we're stuck
Like glue

Take my soul
Kick me to the ground
Too much stupidity around
Don't tell me to wait
It will bring us both down

All the countless tears
We've cried
It still feels like we're stuck
Like glue
All the countless tears
We've cried
It still feels like we're stuck
Like glue
