

Here Comes That Sick Bitch

Hardcore Superstar

I get a little sentimental when I fall
I get a little too much when you push me too far Don't you be sad but I'm the best that you've had
It hurts a little too much and it got out of hand

I know it's so wrong been there before but I always want more I hope you can see you don't matter to me go set me free

Oh no here comes that sick bitch again
So put your guard up because she wants a sick man
Someday she will be your friend and break you down down again
My friend

You nail me to the wall if I don't answer your calls
You say it aint easy, uneasy you are
I feel a bit sad, I know it's bad,
You don't mean shit to me, that's what she said

I know it's so wrong been there before but I always want more, hope you can see
you don't matter to me go set me free

Oh no here comes that sick bitch again
So put your guard up because she wants a sick man
Someday she will be your friend and break you down down again
My friend again

I get a little sentimental when I fall
I get a little too much when you push me too far
You say it aint easy, uneasy you are

So put your guard up because she wants a sick man Someday she will be your friend and break you down down again
My friend again
My friend again
again
My friend
